Learn More. A message from our CEO.

To our valued clients and meeting champions,

In this unprecedented time, AMI is focused on offering services to meet the needs of our clientele. As we move to both hybrid and live meetings, we are providing turnkey services to aid meeting strategies that are becoming a mix of both live and virtual meetings.

For many of our clients, AMI provides shipments of their meeting supplies. We will now offer the management of PPE and other safety products for all meetings as part of our services.

This program is called PPME, Personal Protection Meeting Express.

For those who desire, AMI will provide a turnkey ordering and service for PPE and related products for your employees and attendees. From standard PPE such as gloves, masks, and hand sanitizers to more encompassing products such as secure personal data collection software, signage, and decals, AMI can supply all of PPE meeting supplies, ordered shipped, and delivered to your next program.

Through effective use and distribution of personal protection equipment (PPE) for meeting hosts and attendees, your business can rest assured that your next post-pandemic meeting will be a safe and successful one.

Thank you for your business. Please stay safe and let us know how we may be of service as we navigate this new normal together.
